25. Board: organ in charge of investment promotion in Rwanda;
26. competent authority: any competent public organ.

Chapter II. Guarantees to the investor

Article 3. Openness to investment

All business sectors shall be open to private investment regardless of the origin of the investor.

However, an investor shall be encouraged to invest in priority economic sectors.

Such sectors are the following:

1. export;
2. industrial manufacturing;
3. investment in the sector of energy, transport, information and communication technologies, financial services and construction of low-cost housing.

An Order of the Minister in charge of finance may establish other priority sectors, if deemed necessary.

Article 4. Investor rights

Without prejudice to the provisions of other laws, an investor shall have the following rights:

1. to engage in economic activities of his/her choice;
2. to recruit or dismiss employees;
3. to market goods and services;
4. to freely establish business management
5. to freely choose sources of supplies;
6. to freely use property.

A registered investor meeting required conditions shall also be entitled to special incentives as provided for in the annex to this Law.

Article 5. Foreign investor treatment

A foreign investor may invest and purchase shares in an investment enterprise in Rwanda and shall be given equal treatment with Rwandan investors with regard to incentives and investment facilitation.

Article 6. Protection of the investor's capital and assets

An investor shall have the right to own private property, whether individually or in association with others. Private property, whether individually or collectively owned, shall be inviolable.

No investment, interest in or right over any property forming part of such investment shall be seized or confiscated except where provided under relevant laws.

No action to expropriate an investor's property in public interest shall be taken, unless the investor is given fair compensation in accordance with relevant laws.

Article 7. Protection of intellectual property rights in relation to investment

The investor's intellectual property rights and legitimate rights related to technology transfer shall be guaranteed in accordance with relevant laws.

Article 8. Repatriation of capital and assets

Upon fulfilling all tax obligations in Rwanda, an investor shall be allowed to repatriate the following:

1. capital;
2. profits derived from business activities; 3. debt and interest on foreign loans;
3. proceeds from the liquidation of investment;
4. any other assets of an investor.

Article 9. Dispute settlement

Any dispute arising between a foreign investor and one or more public organs in connection with a registered investment enterprise shall be amicably settled.

When an amicable settlement cannot be reached, parties shall refer the dispute to an arbitration agency as agreed upon in a written agreement between both parties.

Where no arbitration procedure is provided under a written agreement, both parties shall refer the matter to the competent court.

Chapter III. Investment registration

Article 10. Registration procedure

For an investor to be issued an investment certificate determined by the Board in order to qualify for the incentives provided for by this Law, he/she shall fill out an appropriate form indicating his/her identity and any other necessary details.

The applicant shall pay a non-refundable registration fee determined by the regulations of the head of the Board.

Article 11. Investment registration requirements

The application for investment registration must be accompanied by the following:

1. certificate of legal personality of the business company;
2. a business plan which must include at least the following:
 - a. name of the project and detailed information on the project in which investment is or will be made;
 - b. action plan;
 - c. the date of commencement of operations;
 - d. detailed information on any raw materials sourced in the country or in the locality where the investment is operating;
 - e. detailed information on any financing and assets to be sourced from outside Rwanda, including the timeframe in which these finance and assets shall be invested;
 - f. a market survey;
 - g. details of the projected technology and knowledge transfer;
 - h. a table indicating five-year income projections for the investment project;
3. the project environmental impact assessment certificate issued in accordance with relevant laws;
4. projected number of employees and categories of employments;
5. proof of payment of registration fee;
6. license granted by the business sector in which he/she intends to operate.

Article 12. Timeframe for issuance of investment certificate

The applicant for investment certificate who fulfils registration requirements referred to in Articles 10 and 11 of this Law and approved by the business sector in which he/she intends to operate, shall be issued with an investment certificate within two (2) working days from the date of receipt of the application by the Board.

When the application is rejected, the Board shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for rejecting his/her application within the same timeframe as that provided under paragraph one of this Article.

Chapter IV. Obligations of a registered investor

Article 13. Obligations of a registered investor

A registered investor shall have the following obligations:

- to implement his/her proposal in accordance with his/her business plan submitted in the application for an investment certificate;
- to properly keep financial and accounting records of the investment enterprise and submit a copy of a certified financial report to the Board within three (3) months following the preceding financial year;
- to keep data relating to operations of the investment enterprise for a period of five (5) years;
- to facilitate employees of the Board in the performance of their monitoring duties;
- to respond in a period prescribed by written notice to any query from the Board in connection with operations of the investment enterprise;
- to register with the tax administration and file timely tax returns even in case of entitlement.

Chapter V. Role of the board in investment promotion and facilitation

Article 14. Duties of the Board

In a bid to promote and facilitate investment, the Board must:

1. facilitate investors in the following:
 - a. acquiring visas and work permits;
 - b. water and electricity connection;
 - c. being granted a licence by the business sector in which he/she intends to operate, where applicable;
 - d. getting environmental impact assessment certificate;
 - e. any other appropriate investment-related support that may be required;
2. provide investment incentives;
3. ensure day-to-day facilitation to an investor in the implementation of his/her project;
4. ensure daily monitoring of registered investor's operations;

5. keep all records related to investment certificates, work permits, visas and any other documents pertaining to the registered investment enterprise;
6. carry out monitoring of investment projects in order to ensure that investment incentives are directed to the projects which adhere to the requirements and the investor's submitted business plan;
7. facilitate amicable settlement of disputes that may arise between an investor and one or more public organs;
8. represent the Government in negotiating investment agreements;
9. not to disclose confidential information provided by an investor.

Chapter VI. Change, suspension or termination of investment operations

Article 15. Notification to the Board of change and termination of investment operations

A registered investor shall, within a period not exceeding thirty (30) days, inform the Board in writing before :

1. changing the nature of investment operations;
2. suspending investment operations. In this case, the investor shall also indicate the duration of the suspension;
3. terminating investment operations.

Article 16. Notification to the Board by a third party

Any interested person other than the registered investor, who is affected by the suspension or termination of investment operations, may inform the Board.

Article 17. Measures taken by the Board after notification of change of investment operations

Where notification of changes is made in accordance with the provisions of this Law, and such changes materially alter the investment in accordance with Article 11 of this Law but are not detrimental to the investment and criteria for investment incentives qualification, the Board shall amend the investment certificate to reflect such notified changes.

Where changes in the nature of operations do not materially alter the commitments made by an investor, they shall only be recorded in the investor's file.

Chapter VII. Cancellation of an investment certificate

Article 18. Grounds for cancellation of an investment certificate

An investment certificate may be cancelled on the following grounds:

1. it was issued on the basis of false or fraudulent declarations of an investor;

2. material changes detrimental to investment occurred in investment operations;
3. the investor fails to fulfil obligations under this Law.

Article 19. Effects of revocation of investment certificate

Where an investment certificate is cancelled because it was issued on the basis referred to in Article 18, Sub Paragraph 1°, the investor shall be liable to refund an amount equivalent to the incentives he/she was given in his/her capacity as a registered investor.

Article 20. Procedures of cancelling the investment certificate

Prior to cancelling the investment certificate, the Board shall issue a written notice to the investor providing details of grounds for the proposed cancellation and requesting the investor to provide appropriate explanations on these grounds.

The registered investor shall provide written explanations to the Board within ten (10) working days from the date of receipt of the request from the Board.

Where the investor fails to provide explanations within due time or the Board is not satisfied with the explanations provided, the Board shall cancel the investment certificate.

Article 21. Appeal for reconsideration of the decision of cancelling an investment certificate

Where the investor is not satisfied with the decision taken, he/she may appeal against such a decision to the head of the Board within ten (10) working days as of the date of notification of the decision.

The head of the Board shall decide on the appeal within ten (10) working days of the date of appeal.

Chapter VIII. Transitional and final provisions

Article 22. Transitional period

An investor who benefits from the incentives provided under Law n° 26/2005 of 17/12/2005 relating to investment and export promotion and facilitation, which are not provided for under this Law, shall continue to benefit from these incentives for a twelve (12) months period from the date of the publication of this Law in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Rwanda.

However, the transitional period referred to under Paragraph One of this Article shall not be applicable to:

- a. incentives on corporate income tax discounts based on the number of Rwandans employed and export which shall be terminated on the date of the publication of this Law in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Rwanda;
- b. investor benefiting from additional time-bound tax-related incentives for which the government of Rwanda has signed an undertaking before the publication of this law in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Rwanda who continue to benefit from these incentives until the end of the period specified in the undertaking.
